

About Troop 220

Troop 220 was founded in 1994. We are chartered by Covenant United Methodist Church (CUMC) located at the corner of Wyoming and Wilshire in Albuquerque. We meet every Monday from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at CUMC. Our Troop is non-denominational, with Scouts from a diverse background who attend various middle and high schools in Albuquerque including Desert Ridge, Eisenhower, La Cueva, Albuquerque Academy, Sandia Prep, Bosque School and Eldorado. Forty-five of our Scouts have attained the rank of Eagle, including three in 2017. The purpose of Troop 220 is to provide training in outdoor skills, leadership and citizenship to young men in an enjoyable atmosphere. Through camping, backpacking, hiking and service to the community our Scouts learn the principals of Scouting and the responsible enjoyment of our parks, national forests and wilderness areas. For example, in the past two years our Scouts: explored El Malpais and El Morro National Monuments, Sevilleta National Wildlife Refuge and Carlsbad Caverns National Park; completed an Eagle project which improved the gorilla habitat for the Albuquerque Zoo; backpacked in the Apache Kid, San Pedro Parks and Pecos Wilderness Areas; summited Santa Fe Baldy mountain; went to summer camp at Camp Alexander in Colorado and Gorham Scout Ranch in New Mexico, and; completed two BSA High Adventure Camps including a 12-day backpacking trek at Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico and a 7-day canoe expedition at Northern Tier in the Boundary Waters Canoe Wilderness Area of Minnesota.
